I'm Fitz and I am a Front End developer with years of work experience in many different fields. I have gained a lot of experience in the events world which has enabled me to be in tons of situations and I've learned much that I'd love to share with you. Feel free to check out my website.

- Web Developer with experience in various industries/positions.
- Tech savvy and up to date with the latest technology trends.
- Motivated self-starter, able to learn on the job, takes initiative.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

COMMUNITY PROGRAM MANAGER, AARP & LIVETECH, New York, NY 9/16 – Present

- I am currently responsible for managing and overseeing digital technology workshops for senior citizens who need help understanding new technology.
- I coordinate the location, event inventory and I also instruct the workshops with LiveTech. We host about 20-30 seniors per workshop in NYC and Long Island.

BRAND AMBASSADOR, SELF EMPLOYED, New York, NY 3/13 – Present

- I occasionally freelance with various event companies as a brand ambassador.
- On these events I would work with marketing companies to represent brands to enhance consumer engagements with said companies.

TRAVEL PROFESSIONAL, WORLD TRAVEL HOLDINGS, Remote Position 10/13 – 5/14

- As a travel professional I was responsible for discussing product and sales opportunities with customers daily and travel planning for cruises and vacations.

RETENTION SALES ASSOCIATE, CABLEVISION, Bronx, NY 10/12 – 2/13

- As a sales associate I worked in a high traffic call center job, handling cancellation calls from customers.
- My position would be to offer them an excellent deal to stay.
